SUSTAINABLE CORPORATE MANAGEMENT

IN ENGLISH ONLY

Objectives

The MAE Master in Sustainable Corporate Management (SCM) is a 2-year program fully taught in English and offered by the IAE Nancy School of Management at Université de Lorraine. This program provides students with a comprehensive understanding of key management disciplines and combines theoretical and practical approaches, with a strong focus on sustainability.

The SCM Master's program equips future leaders with the skills to manage cross-functional processes, implement sustainable organizational change, and develop corporate strategies centered on social and environmental responsibility. Graduates will be prepared to lead teams and projects in diverse, multicultural, and sustainability-conscious environments. The curriculum addresses also critical issues such as technological advancements, environmental challenges, and the pressing need for ecological transition within the context of an evolving, globalized economy.

The program is open to students from various academic backgrounds and from any country. It is specifically designed for individuals with prior education in fields such as engineering, science, law, social sciences or humanities and provides a valuable opportunity to enhance their expertise with essential management skills. The program welcomes applicants who hold a minimum a bachelor's degree (or equivalent of 180 ECTS), master's graduates and professionals in continuing education. Applicants with a background in management are also encouraged to apply, provided they demonstrate how the program will further their professional development.

- A recognized degree from a prestigious, established European university.
- A specialized master degree in corporate and sustainable management with a process-driven approach to organizational practices.
- Courses addressing contemporary global and European sustainability challenges faced by modern organizations.
- The acquisition of advanced knowledge of sustainable corporate practices to develop or strengthen managerial and sustainability-focused skills aimed at career progression.
- A full and vibrant multicultural experience with students coming from all over the world.

The Master's program takes place on-site in Nancy, France. It is conducted entirely in English. As it recruits students from all over the world, it is a multicultural, sharing experience.

Selected participants can take part in student exchange programs within the EURECA-PRO European University, or with other partner academic institutions (Canada, Germany, Austria, Belgium, Netherlands, Spain, Italy, Slovakia, Switzerland, Poland, Turkey, etc.).

Opportunities

Graduates of the Master in Sustainable Corporate Management will be equipped for leadership roles in diverse sectors, integrating sustainability into organizational practices. The program emphasizes ethical decision-making and prepares graduates to address ecological and technological challenges, drive organizational change, and implement strategies for environmental and social responsibility. With a global perspective, they will be capable of managing teams and projects in multicultural environments..

CAREER PATHWAYS FOR PROGRAM GRADUATES:

- Manager in International Business (Marketing, Sales, etc.) with a focus on sustainability and ethical trade.
- Business Unit Manager with an emphasis on responsible corporate governance.
- Organizational Management, specializing in sustainability performance and impact control.
- Strategic Human Resource Management in multicultural and diverse environments, promoting inclusivity and sustainable work practices.
- Engineering Project Management with dual competencies, combining technical expertise with responsible management.
- Consultant in organizational transformation, focusing on sustainable development and ethical business practices.

Application

THE SCM PROGRAM WELCOMES STUDENTS FROM ACROSS THE GLOBE WHO ARE PASSIONATE ABOUT SUSTAINABLE AND RESPONSIBLE MANAGEMENT.

- French and international students who have successfully completed a Master's degree in Engineering, Sciences, Medicine, Arts, Literature, Human and Social Sciences etc. (or a minimum of a 3 or 4-year Bachelor's degree with at least 180 ECTS credits) and who wish to complement their expertise with solid management skills.
- French or international young professionals, either currently employed or in career transition, holding a Bachelor's or Master's degree in any field, who are seeking to develop expertise in sustainable business practices or enhance their knowledge and leadership skills in international contexts.
- Applicants with higher education in business, management, or economics are welcome to apply. However, they must clearly articulate in their application how this program will support their career objectives in addition to their previous education.
- Applications from candidates in continuing education without a 4-year Bachelor's or Master's degree (or equivalent qualification) will be reviewed by a special commission that evaluates professional experience. In such cases, candidates must have a minimum of four years of managerial responsibility, with a focus on sustainability or ethical business leadership.

PREREQUISITES

Applicants must provide a valid & recent certificate of English language proficiency, which demonstrates a minimum B-2 level (C1 recommended). All IELTS, TOEFL, TOEIC, and Duolingo tests are accepted. Unless, they are a native English speaker or have proof of working or studying in an English-speaking environment.

Students applying for full English programs do not need to provide French certification. However, it is important to know basic French for everyday use in France and to develop French-proficiency for those who intend to intern or work in France.

Scholarship

The French Ministry of Foreign Affairs offers the Eiffel Scholarship Program, designed to attract international students with outstanding academic achievements at the Master's and Doctoral levels. The application process generally begins at the end of September and concludes in early January. Student applications for the Eiffel Scholarship are submitted by the universities. A candidate may be supported by only one university. To apply for our program AND the Eiffel scholarship, please contact us via email at iae-nancy-international-contact@univ-lorraine.fr between September and November 15th.

In addition, French embassies in many countries offer scholarship programs for students wishing to study in France. Please reach out to the French Embassy in your home country for more details. Be aware that application deadlines can vary significantly from one country to another and may take up to a year.

For more information on various scholarship opportunities, please visit the Campus France website: www.campusfrance.org/en/bursaries-foreign-students.

Additionally, for French students, scholarships are available through CROUS (Centre Régional des Œuvres Universitaires et Scolaires). These scholarships are based on financial need and can be applied for via the CROUS website: www.messervices.etudiant.gouv.fr.

Please note that neither the IAE NANCY School of Management nor the Université de Lorraine offers a dedicated scholarship program for international students.
